(updated: 11/28/01 TS – Ms. Saunders is an LTC employee who is outstationed at the Sheybogan Job Center. She works with women seeking non-traditional jobs. The Center offers a number of introductory programs to familiarize women with these careers. At present, these careers are all related to factory work: industrial electronics, industrial maintenance, mechanical design, and machine tool. A course in auto mechanics is planned for next year. The Center currently is not involved with construction trades. She would appreciate employers to contact her about non-traditional job openings even though they may already be listing their openings with Job Service.)
